A summer at Camp Kef can be one of the most exciting and memorable experiences for your child.

We do understand that paying for camp can be a major challenge for some families and want to share all the resources that will help make camp more affordable for your family.

- Camp Kef Scholarship Fund

- DEADLINE: April 15, 2022
- The Kaiserman JCC offers generous scholarships to qualified families. Most scholarships range from $250-$750. Special consideration will be given to those families who have also applied for a scholarship from the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia. To apply, complete a scholarship application form which you can be requested from Amy Foster by contacting Amy at afoster@phillyjcc.com or 610-896-7770, ext. 118.

- Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia

- DEADLINE: March 31, 2022
- The Jewish Federation provides important scholarship assistance for Jewish campers to attend camp. Camp Kef is on the list of qualified camps for this program. To apply, visit https://jewishfedphilly.smapply.org/prog/need\_based\_day\_camps\_scholarships/.

- Hebrew Free Loan Society of Philadelphia

- While this is not a scholarship program, HFL provides interest free loans to Jewish families to help pay for camp. For more information and to request a loan application, visit: <http://www.hflphilly.org/>.

- Special Opportunities:

- There are special funds available for single parent households headed by women. Please contact the Female Hebrew Benevolent Society here: <https://www.fhbs.org/contact/>.
- Additional opportunities for financial assistance available through Jewish Family and Children Services of Greater Philadelphia. You can contact them here: <https://www.jfcsphilly.org/main-home-page/about-2/contact/>.
