

RootOne Voucher Compliance: Participant Family Agreement

The cost of participation for Team Philadelphia in the JCC Maccabi Games in Israel is $7500. Eligible teens are invited to apply for a RootOne voucher which will provide an additional $3000 subsidy to bring the total cost down to $4500. To qualify for this voucher each teen athlete must meet certain requirements as outlined below:

RootOne Voucher Eligibility Requirements for the 2023 JCC Maccabi Games in Israel

Eligible Jewish teen must:

- be between 14-17 years old for the duration of the trip July 5-July 25th, 2023
- have not previously received a RootOne Voucher
- consent to allow RootOne to collect, use, and share contact information with like-minded Jewish organizations and media rights to image, audio, recordings, etc.
- complete the pre-trip educational requirement by May 1, 2023 (approximately 8-10 hours of in person or online programming as provided by the JCC delegation head to participants)

Teen and Family Agreements

Teens who are not eligible for RootOne vouchers, choose to decline the opportunity, or fail to meet the participant eligibility requirements (outlined above) by May 1st, 2023, will be responsible for paying the Kaiserman JCC $3,000 to cover the outstanding balance (equivalent to the voucher) for the trip or forfeit participation and all fees already paid.

Please check the boxes below:

- Teen agrees to apply for the RootOne voucher
- Teen agrees to complete the pre-trip educational requirement by May 1, 2023
- Family agrees to assume responsibility for voucher funds ($3000) if the teen does not complete RootOne requirements, including pre-trip educational requirement, in accordance with RootOne guidelines

Please review the above information outlining the requirements of the RootOne voucher opportunity and complete this Agreement and send to Barrie Mittica, Philadelphia Delegation Head, bmittica@phillyjcc.com, signed by the teen and parent no later than 1/31/2023
